AIAA Meeting

There will be an AIAA meeting this Friday, November 30, starting at 5pm in King 126. Either Dr. Smith or Dr. Devereux will be speaking on the Space Physics program to be offered at ERAU-Prescott. We will also hold elections for two new officers, take orders for AIAA T-shirts, eat sub sandwiches and discuss upcoming activities.

AIAA Elections

AIAA will be holding mid-year elections for both President and Treasurer at the November 30, 5pm meeting. We need enthusiastic individuals interested in helping our organization for the rest of the academic year. Contact Dr. Lanning or Karolyn Batka (batkak@pr.erau.edu) if interested.

Mars Pathfinder Speaker

The December 7 AIAA-Phoenix dinner meeting will feature Jennifer Trospen from JPL, discussing the Mars Pathfinder program. In less than four years and for less than $171 million, a small team of engineers designed, built, tested and operated a spacecraft that landed on Mars, carrying a rover named Sojourner to the surface. If you would like to attend, contact Dr. Lanning (lannind@pr.erau.edu) by noon, Tuesday, Dec. 4. Indicate meal preference (chicken with mushrooms and basil or vegetable pasta marinara). $10 for student members.

Jennifer Trospen has tentatively agreed to visit Embry-Riddle Saturday morning, December 8, to give a presentation to students and faculty. Details of this event will be provided soon.
